One More “Goodbye”

At the very end of 2008, Jenny came to Morningstar as a feisty 9 year old used to getting her own way and doing her own thing. Her parents had been separated for several years and passed her back and forth each wanting the other to be responsible for her, and it became heartbreakingly obvious after some time that neither one loved her enough to step up and request legal custody. About a year later the judge severed parental rights and Jenny became adoptable. She prayed continuously for a new family as she saw other children at Morningstar leave as they were adopted. The adoption authorities asked Jenny if she would be willing to be adopted by a single lady who lives in Chiclayo and she happily said “Yes”. On April 24th, she met her Mom for the first time and was signed out of Morningstar on Friday the 27th. During her time at Morningstar she accepted Christ as her Savior, was baptized and blossomed into a lovely young lady and we ask you to keep her in your prayers as she adapts to her new live and has the opportunity to be a witness amongst her new family.

“.....and yet another”

Bob & Janet Coates have served tirelessly as house parents at Morningstar for almost three years. They have recently informed us they believe the Lord is guiding them to return permanently to their home in Florida in mid June. They have made notable impact on the ministry during their time here and they will be sorely missed. Please pray for them as they prepare to travel and readjust to life in the US. We covet your prayers for wisdom to know the Lord’s will regarding their replacement.

Thank you for your interest and support of the ministry here.
